1:00 p.m. Experiences of the Khabarovsk-Alaska Rule of Law Partnership (KAROL)
Alex Bryner shares his experiences of KAROL. From 2002 through 2010, the Alaska Court System and rep resentatives from other Alaska justice system agencies worked with their professional counterparts in the Khabarovsk region of Russia to examine issues posed by the administration of justice under the emerging Russian democracy. KAROL was one of several partnerships organized under the Russian-American Rule of Law Consortium—a national program that paired state judicial systems with their counterparts in Russia.

1:30 p.m. Eyewitness Account of a Lawyer in Thailand
Mark Andrews is a retired attorney in Fairbanks. In 2008 he worked in Thailand through the auspices of the International Senior Lawyers Project. He worked for Bridges Across Borders-- Southeast Asia (BAB SEA) in Chiang Mai. His specific project was the preparation of a curriculum for the student law clinic, which is at the Faculty of Law at Chiang Mai University.
