Program description:

This program is designed to be interactive. After viewing a series of video vignettes, the audience will discuss in small groups a series of questions that address the issues raised in each vignette. A large group discussion will follow in order to bring together the many ideas and responses that arise in the small groups.

The goal of the program is to create an awareness of learning opportunities and to discuss possible solutions to the issues raised. Attorneys should take time to reflect upon the ethical issues and professionalism, and use such an analysis in their individual practices on a more frequent basis. The focus is process and solutions. Ultimately, attendees will leave the program better able to identify learning opportunities, and more willing to take advantage of those opportunities.

*THIS INTERACTIVE PROGRAM WILL NOT BE AVAILABLE FOR WEBCAST OR DVD PURCHASE.
