

Grace Under Fire:

Ethics, Professionalism and Civility in the Courtroom

CLE# 2011-023

Tuesday, August 30, 2011 at the Hotel Captain Cook, 8:30 – 9:30 a.m.

This breakfast program will address the ethical obligations of attorneys in court proceedings, the expectations with respect to professionalism and how attorneys guided by ethical standards, principles of professionalism and a commitment to civility are more effective and successful advocates. Practical considerations establish that ethical, professional and civil conduct by trial counsel is in the best interests of the justice system, the legal profession, the client and the individual attorney
