

Andy Petro

Alaska Commercial Real Estate Manager

Andy Petro manages a team of five Anchorage-based commercial real estate industry specialists who work with Alaska real estate developers and builders to secure financing for building projects and streamline business operations.

Petro is a 23-year company veteran with 11 years of experience working with Alaska builders and developers. He joined predecessor National Bank of Alaska as a loan review officer and served in collections and commercial leasing before entering the Management Training program in 1997. He served Ketchikan customers as a store manager and business relationship manager for four years before joining the commercial real estate team.

Petro graduated with honors from the Pacific Coast Banking School in 2009, and he earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from Humboldt State University.

Petro serves in the community as an Anchorage Rotary Club member. He also has served on several committees for Associated General Contractors (AGC) of Alaska and Commonwealth North. In Ketchikan, he served as University of Alaska Southeast Ketchikan campus advisory council vice chairperson, Ketchikan Rotary Club president and Ketchikan Visitors Bureau board member.
